Nominations Sought for Historic Preservation Awards

Nominations for the 2010 Historic Preservation Awards Program are now being sought by the Oak Park Historic Preservation Commission, citizen volunteers who advise the Village Board on historic preservations issues. August 13 is the deadline for submissions.

Single-family residences, apartment buildings, commercial buildings, public/institutional buildings and religious structures may be nominated in the categories of restoration, rehabilitation, adaptive use and additions/new construction. Additional awards are presented for stewardship, detail and design.

Projects should have been created within the past five years, and located within the boundaries of the Village. Nominations need not be in an historic district. Interior work also may be considered in conjunction with exterior work.

Any resident, owner or tenant of eligible structures, members of local preservation and historical societies, and members of the Oak Park Community Design Commission and Historic Preservation Commission may make nominations. The judges' decisions will be based upon the Historic Preservation Commission's Architectural Review Guidelines, which are based on the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation, as well as considerations of contextual and design appropriateness.

Nomination forms are available in Village Hall, 123 Madison St., by contacting Community Planning and Development at 708.358.5417 or by e-mail to planning@oak-park.us. A nomination form also can be downloaded from the Village website www.oak-park.us – mouse over the Departments tab, click on Historic Preservation and look for the link along the right margin.

Awards will be presented on Sept. 23 at Unity Temple, 875 Lake St.
