Developer to present plans for Harlem and South project

The preferred plan for a mixed-use development proposed for Village-owned properties at Harlem Avenue and South Boulevard will be presented to the public at 7p.m., Tues. Nov. 21 in Village Hall, 123 Madison St.

Representatives from Morningside Equities Group will be on hand to describe their proposal and answer questions from residents. The proposed development, which was selected through a request for proposals (RFP), would include a mix of first-floor retail space, multiple levels of parking and condominiums.

For more information on the meeting or proposal, contact the Community Planning & Development Department at 358.5644 or email devsvcs@oak-park.us.
