A Day in Our Village participation deadline nears

April 30 is the deadline to submit applications to participate in A Day in Our Village, an annual festival where local groups showcase their organizations to the community. This year's event is set for Sun., June 3.

New or established Oak Park-based civic, cultural, business, social service, religious and educational organizations wishing to attract volunteers, clients or new members are invited to participate. Fund-raising or selling arts and crafts are not allowed, and only participating local restaurants may provide refreshments.

For more information on how to participate in or volunteering to help with the 2007 A Day in Our Village celebration, call 358.5420 or e-mail community@oak-park.us.
