Documentary to talk trash in America

What does every man, woman and child in the United States produce nearly five pounds of every day? The answer is garbage, and that's the subject of a documentary to be screened at 1 p.m., Sat., Jan. 6 in Unity Temple, 875 Lake St.

Entitled Trashed, the film is a sometimes humorous look at what some might call the public's disregard for how garbage is handled today. Admission is free.

The screening is co-sponsored by the Oak Park Public Library and the Village's Environmental and Energy Advisory Commission. Refreshments will be provided by Unity Temple Green Committee and a discussion will follow the film.
