Human Relations Award nominations sought

Nominations are now being sought for the third annual 2008 Human Relations Awards, which recognize exceptional contributions toward equality, justice and human rights. The deadline to submit a nomination is 5 p.m., Wed., April 30.

Individuals, not-for-profit organizations and businesses may be nominated for outstanding voluntary contributions for the betterment of the community through areas such as encouraging diversity in the workforce, organizing, promoting and participating in community activities related to human relations issues and demonstrating positive leadership in human relations.

Nominations will be evaluated by the citizen volunteers who serve on the Community Relations Commission, which was established in 1963 to promote equality and diversity in housing and employment, and to ensure full and equal access to all public places of accommodation within the Village.

Nomination forms, evaluation criteria and submission instructions are available at the Village Hall, 123 Madison, and on the main Community Relations page of Village website www.oak-park.us/community.

Award recipients will be invited to attend a celebration ceremony during a Village Board of Trustees meeting in June.
