First-time homebuyer training sessions set for realtors and lenders

Free training sessions to help realtors and lenders better understand Oak Park's first-time home buying loan program will be held on Wed., Oct. 15 at Village Hall, 123 Madison St.

The first session is set for 9 a.m. – 11 a.m. and is geared toward realtors. The second session is from noon – 2 p.m. and is for lenders and loan officers.

Topics for each session include new Illinois Housing Development Authority loan products, eligibility, purchase price and income limits, and the availability of first-time homebuyer counseling services from the Oak Park Regional Housing Center.

Sessions are sponsored by the Village of Oak Park, Oak Park Area Association of Realtors, Oak Park Regional Housing Center and the Illinois Housing Development Authority.

Pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, call 708.358.5410 or e-mail housing@oakpark.us.
