Category (Check applicable category)

Adaptive Use ___	Changing the use of a structure to meet contemporary needs in a manner that retains its viability while respecting its original character.
Addition/New ___ Commercial ___ Residential	Can include an addition directly to a structure or new construction on a property, which is sympathetic to the historic nature of the original building or the historic character of the block.
Rehabilitation ___ Commercial ___ Residential	Modifying a structure, object or site to a functional condition through alteration or addition using materials compatible in scale, color, texture and character with the original.
Restoration ___ Commercial ___ Residential	Returning a structure, object or site or a significant part to the original design and condition by repairing or replacing the original material, architectural detail or paint color scheme.
Sustainability ___ Commercial ___ Residential	Recognizing that historic preservation and sustainable building practices go hand-in-hand in saving our past and future, the Historic Preservation Commission and the Environmental and Energy Advisory Commission seek applicants for a joint award. Projects that sensitively adapt, add to, rehabilitate, or restore an older structure while innovatively addressing sustainability issues of air, energy, waste, and water will be considered.
